Yeo Moor Primary School – our school offer

In our school we understand that from time-to-time family life can have its complications. These may be times when as a family you need some extra help and support. To support and advise at such times we have a school early help offer.

The safeguarding team can offer advice on a range of concerns and can signpost parents/carers to other sources of information, help and support. Please contact our Safeguarding team through the school office.

Our current school offer:

Learning Mentor Support is available to help support families, signpost to other agencies, discuss through issues that may have an impact on the family. The Learning Mentor is contactable through email or on the school gate. sdowning@yeomoorprimaryschool.org.uk.

Breakfast and After school Club provision known as Heron Club. Attendance at Breakfast Club can have an important impact on school attendance as it gives the child/ren time to settle into the school environment.

Attendance officer – known as an EWO (Education Welfare officer) Mr Peter Noble will offer support and help in ensuring children are in school.

SENDCO (special educational needs/disabilities coordinator) drop ins for parents and carers each term- our SENDCO can offer advice and signpost to other agencies if needed. Please look out for the dates in our newsletters and on our website.

Trained mental health first aiders and mental health awareness trained staff in our school community are available for an initial chat and can signpost.

Kindness Ambassadors – the children's voice of our school, the ambassadors meet every two weeks with our Headteacher Mr Lovatt

Transforming Lives for Good (TLG) - this is a mentoring service of one hour a week run by our local church outreach team. This is currently being targeted for our year 6 children but can be accessed by children in other age groups.

Youth Club coaches – this is a mentoring service of one hour a week targeted at our year 6 children to also aid transition to their secondary schools.

Foodbank Vouchers – available for any of our families in need please email – sdowning@yeomoorprimaryschool.org.uk

Emergency foodbank parcels – we always hold two parcels for any of our families in need in school please email sdowning@yeomoorprimaryschool.org.uk

After school Sports Clubs run by Bristol Sports- part of our wellbeing provision.
