Fidget Toy

- An exam arrangement for a fidget toy is a formally approved reasonable adjustment that allows a student with special educational needs, disabilities, or anxiety to use a tactile object during an exam. This may help the student to focus and self-regulate.
- The object will be provided by the Exams Team.
- The arrangement must reflect the student's normal way of working in class tests/assessments.

